Objectives:

- Identify and explain the nature of the “paradox of spirituality” in recovery from substance abuse disorders
- Understand the connection between the psychology and spirituality of the 12 Steps
- Clarify the difference between institutional religious and faith traditions and recovery spirituality
- Apply specific interventions with recovering clients to facilitate successful treatment results

Debonee Morgan, LMFT, Certified Spiritual Director, is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, a Certified Spiritual Director, and the Director of the Resonance training program for spiritual directors. She is a graduate of the inaugural cohort of The Living School at the Center for Action and Contemplation, earning a certificate in Contemplative and NonDual Consciousness. Trained and certified at Stillpoint Center for Christian Spirituality, Debonee is known as a spiritual teacher, workshop presenter, and therapist specializing in the integration of spirituality and psychotherapy, especially in recovery.
